Detailed Summary of The Lekki Headmaster by Kabir Alabi Garba

The Lekki Headmaster is a compelling novel that explores themes of dedication, migration, family, and the challenges of the Nigerian education system. The story revolves around Mr. Bepo Adewale, a passionate and dedicated principal at Stardom Schools, a prestigious institution in Lekki, Lagos. Bepo is affectionately nicknamed "The Lekki Headmaster" due to his charismatic leadership and his ability to resolve conflicts among staff and students with wisdom and humor.

Plot Summary (Get Free JAMB UTME CBT Practice Questions @ https://EtestAcademy.com/jamb)

Chapter 1: Dusk (Get Free JAMB UTME CBT Practice Questions @ https://EtestAcademy.com/jamb)

The novel opens with a dramatic scene during the morning assembly at Stardom Schools. Bepo, the principal, breaks down in tears while addressing the students. His emotional outburst shocks everyone, including the staff and students. The Vice Principal, Mrs. Grace Apeh, and the school nurse, Mrs. Titi, console him, but Bepo is unable to explain his distress. The incident leaves the school community puzzled and concerned.

Chapter 2: The Enticement (Get Free JAMB UTME CBT Practice Questions @ https://EtestAcademy.com/jamb)

Bepo eventually reveals that he is under immense pressure to relocate to the United Kingdom to join his wife, Seri, and their two children, Nike and Kike, who have already moved there. Seri, a nurse, has secured a well-paying job in the UK, and the family has been urging Bepo to join them. Despite his love for Stardom Schools and his students, Bepo feels torn between his commitment to the school and his family's demands.

Bepo reflects on his 24-year career at Stardom, where he rose from being a headmaster at Stardom Kiddies (the nursery/primary arm) to becoming the principal of the secondary school. His colleagues, including the humorous Fine Arts teacher, Mr. Audu, and the Physics teacher, Pastor Ope Wande, try to convince him that relocating to the UK is a golden opportunity. However, Bepo is reluctant to leave Nigeria, as he dreams of starting his own school and contributing to the development of his country.

Chapter 3: Migration Tales (Get Free JAMB UTME CBT Practice Questions @ https://EtestAcademy.com/jamb)

Bepo begins to explore the realities of migration by listening to stories from Nigerians who have relocated abroad. He learns about the challenges and opportunities of living in countries like the UK, the USA, and Canada. A former colleague, Sola, who now lives in the UK, shares her experiences and reassures Bepo that his transition will be smooth since his wife is already settled there. Despite the allure of better pay and infrastructure abroad, Bepo remains conflicted about leaving Nigeria.

Chapter 4: A Case of Visa Denied*(Get Free JAMB UTME CBT Practice Questions @* https://EtestAcademy.com/jamb )

Bepo's personal life becomes more complicated when he receives a late-night call from Mrs. Ignatius, a parent whose family is embroiled in a paternity scandal. A DNA test revealed that her husband, Mr. Ignatius, is not the biological father of one of their children. The family's plans to relocate to the UK are shattered, and their marriage is on the brink of collapse. Bepo sympathizes with Mrs. Ignatius but feels powerless to help. This incident further highlights the emotional toll of migration and family separation.

Chapter 5: Snake in the Roof (Get Free JAMB UTME CBT Practice Questions @ https://EtestAcademy.com/jamb )

The Managing Director (MD) of Stardom Schools, Mrs. Ibidun Gloss, discovers that some staff members are using a piece of school land as a parking lot for their personal vehicles. She becomes suspicious that the school's finances are being mismanaged. However, an investigation reveals that the staff had taken loans from the school's cooperative society to purchase the cars. The board of directors, led by Mrs. Gloss's mother, Chief Mrs. Solape Bayo, decides to cap loan amounts to prevent misuse of funds.

Chapter 6: Ade as Well as Jide COMES vs. COME

A humorous yet tense situation arises when an English teacher, Mr. Fafore, is accused of teaching incorrect grammar. The MD, Mrs. Gloss, is furious and orders Fafore's dismissal. However, Bepo intervenes and explains that the grammar rule in question is correct. The incident is resolved with laughter, but it underscores the pressures faced by teachers and the importance of effective communication in education.

Chapter 7: Ritualists (Get Free JAMB UTME CBT Practice Questions @ https://EtestAcademy.com/jamb )

Bepo recalls a disturbing incident from his time at Beesway Group of Schools, where he witnessed the school director participating in a ritual involving the live burial of a cow. This experience deeply troubled Bepo and reinforced his belief in ethical practices in education. He reflects on how some school owners resort to unorthodox methods to achieve success, contrasting this with his own commitment to hard work and integrity.

Chapter 8: Missions Unaccomplished

Bepo reflects on unresolved issues at Stardom, including a rivalry between two students, Banky and Tosh, whose families are embroiled in a legal dispute. He also worries about the future of the school's Invention Club, which is working on an innovative project to create phones using recycled materials. Bepo fears that his departure will derail these initiatives, but he remains hopeful that the school will continue to thrive.

Chapter 10: Passport Pains (Get Free JAMB UTME CBT Practice Questions @ https://EtestAcademy.com/jamb )

Bepo faces bureaucratic hurdles while renewing his passport in preparation for his relocation. He encounters delays, network glitches, and demands for bribes, which frustrate him but also highlight the systemic challenges in Nigeria. Despite these obstacles, Bepo eventually secures his passport and prepares to leave for the UK.

Chapter 11: Point of No Return (Get Free JAMB UTME CBT Practice Questions @ https://EtestAcademy.com/jamb )

Bepo's farewell at Stardom Schools is emotional and heartfelt. The school organizes a series of events to honor his contributions, including a debate, cultural performances, and a touching speech by Mrs. Gloss. Bepo is presented with a cheque for $10,000 as a token of appreciation. However, as he prepares to board his flight, he has a vivid dream about the horrors of slavery, symbolizing his internal struggle with leaving Nigeria.

Chapter 12: Dawn (Get Free JAMB UTME CBT Practice Questions @ https://EtestAcademy.com/jamb )

In a surprising twist, Bepo decides not to board the plane and returns to Stardom Schools. His students and colleagues are overjoyed to see him, and he declares that his heart belongs to the school and his mission in Nigeria. The novel ends on a hopeful note, with Bepo reaffirming his commitment to education and his students.
